Overall Purpose of the Post:

This is an exciting opportunity to join CAPA College, a forward-thinking and outstanding institution focused on Arts in Education. Our Film & TV Pathway has seen incredible growth in both popularity and success, and as a result, we are seeking a passionate and creative Film & TV subject specialist to join our established team of teachers, artists, and practitioners.

The CAPA College Film & TV curriculum includes:

- Film Production: Directing, editing, sound design, cinematography, and storytelling
- Television Production: Broadcast techniques, live studio work, and post-production
- Media Theory: Critical analysis, genre studies, and media representation
- Creative Projects: Student-led productions and industry-linked opportunities

We are looking for an innovative and dedicated Film and TV teacher who will inspire students through engaging, industry-focused lessons. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in film and television production, with the ability to teach a variety of technical and theoretical topics, from cinematography and editing to media theory and narrative analysis. We welcome applications from specialists who feel they have the experience, skills, and passion to make a significant contribution to our Film & TV curriculum. This includes qualified teachers (QTS), FE or HE lecturers, and Film & TV practitioners with teaching experience.

CAPA College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
